

Travel Guide: Prague

3 Day Itinerary

Generated: 2026-01-28 19:02

Trip Overview

Explore the charming city of Prague over three days, focusing on its rich culinary scene, historic landmarks, cultural experiences, and picturesque photography spots. This itinerary is designed to be family-friendly, safe, and convenient, ensuring minimal travel time from your hotel to various attractions.

Day-by-Day Itinerary

Day 1

**Morning:****

- Start your day with a visit to the iconic Prague Castle. Arrive early to avoid crowds and enjoy the stunning views of the city. Take a leisurely walk through the castle grounds and visit St. Vitus Cathedral.
- Opening Hours: 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

**Afternoon:****

- Head to Charles Bridge for a picturesque stroll. This historic bridge is perfect for photography and offers stunning views of the Vltava River.
- Enjoy lunch at Kampa Park, a family-friendly restaurant with a view of the river.

**Evening:****

- Explore the Old Town Square, where you can see the Astronomical Clock and enjoy street performances.
- Have dinner at Mlejnice, known for its traditional Czech cuisine in a welcoming atmosphere.

Day 2

**Morning:****

- Visit the Lesser Quarter (Malá Strana), a charming district with beautiful baroque architecture. Don't miss the Lennon Wall for some colorful photos.
- Stop by Café Savoy for breakfast, known for its elegant interior and delicious pastries.

**Afternoon:****

- Discover the Petřín Hill and take a funicular ride to the top. Visit the Petřín Lookout Tower for panoramic views of Prague.
- Lunch at Nebozízek Restaurant, located on Petřín Hill, offering a great view and kid-friendly menu.

**Evening:****

- Attend a cultural experience at the National Theatre or enjoy a classical music concert suitable for families.
- Dinner at Lokál U Bílé Kuželky, where you can try traditional Czech dishes in a lively setting.

Day 3

**Morning:****

- Head to the Jewish Quarter (Josefov) and explore the Jewish Museum and Old Jewish Cemetery. It's a great cultural and historical experience for the whole family.
- Have breakfast at Bakeshop, a delightful bakery offering fresh pastries and coffee.

**Afternoon:****

- Visit **Vyšehrad**, a historic fort with beautiful gardens and stunning views of the city. It's a peaceful area for a family picnic.
- Lunch at **U Kalicha**, a restaurant famous for its traditional Czech food and family-friendly atmosphere.

**Evening:****

- End your trip with a relaxing boat cruise on the Vltava River, which offers a different perspective of Prague's beauty.
- Have a farewell dinner at **Hergetova Cihelna**, located on the riverbank with a children's menu and a scenic view.

Recommended Restaurants & Cafes

- **Kampa Park**: Riverside dining with a view
- **Mlejnice**: Traditional Czech cuisine
- **Café Savoy**: Breakfast and pastries
- **Nebozízek Restaurant**: Hilltop dining
- **Lokál U Bílé Kuželky**: Czech dishes in a lively setting
- **Bakeshop**: Fresh pastries and coffee
- **U Kalicha**: Traditional Czech food
- **Hergetova Cihelna**: Scenic riverbank dining

Essential Travel Tips

- Prague is generally safe, but always keep an eye on your belongings, especially in crowded areas.
- Wear comfortable shoes as you will be doing a lot of walking.
- Consider purchasing a Prague Card for discounts on attractions and public transport.
- Use the reliable public transport system or taxis for short distances if needed.

Estimated Budget Breakdown

- **Accommodation:** $150 - $250 per night for a family room in a mid-range hotel
- **Meals:** $10 - $25 per person per meal
- **Attractions:** $20 - $50 per person for entrance fees and activities
- **Transportation:** $10 - $20 per day for public transport or short taxi rides
- **Miscellaneous:** $50 for souvenirs and extras

Packing Suggestions

- Comfortable walking shoes
  - Weather-appropriate clothing (check the forecast)
  - Camera for capturing photography spots
  - A small backpack for daily essentials
  - Travel documents and a map or guidebook
- Enjoy your family-friendly adventure in Prague, a city rich with history, culture, and culinary delights!